ACI SPORT TO RUN TCR CLASS IN ITALY

TCR, the newly created Touring Car category, continues to expand its boundaries as it heads towards its inaugural season.

The promoter of the Italian automobile championships, ACI Sport, has announced that a TCR class will run as a promotional category for 2015 within the well-established Campionato Italiano Turismo Endurance (CITE), alongside the two existing Divisions: Super Production and Super 2000 categories.

The CITE Sporting Regulations will remain unchanged, with two races per event of 48 minutes plus one lap each, including a mandatory pit stop.

The 2015 CITE calendar will comprise of seven race meetings that will be announced in due course.
